He Ain’t Heavy, He’s My Brother

“But there are still those in darkness who cannot understand why I share the burden which belongs to another man.

“When asked “Why weigh yourself down with the load of another?”
I simply smile at them and say, He ain’t heavy, He is my bother.”

-Bro. Freeman Montague, Jr.

The ratification of the four-year contract with our new employer is complete. In many ways, for the first time in more than a decade of corporate abuse, our members have a brief opportunity to savor this moment: 100 new jobs contractually guaranteed is an historic marker in the battle for the Lawrence Park plant that for decades has served as a key driver to the local economy.

Reflecting back over the past six months tells a tale of brotherhood that cannot adequately be measured, and one that we hope will spark action in those who have never experienced it. A nine-day lockout showed our undying commitment to our union brothers and sisters and it allowed our community and nation to see close up what it means to share the burden of another for the good of all.

Supreme Court Justice and activist, Ruth Bader Ginsberg once said, “Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you.”

A four-year contract with a new employer may be marked in the history books for its significance in the US Labor Movement. But it also marks a moment of solidarity with our community. While we didn't get everything that was fair and just, our community and our neighbors joined us. Our Erie joined our struggle, and supported our position. Countless letters to the editor from concerned neighbors helped fuel our resolve. And union Brothers and Sisters from across the country and world watched on as the citizens of Erie, PA helped carry their load.

No deal is ever perfect, it represents a moment-in-time compromise that by its very nature cannot be perfect. We know that for some there is a bitter taste left from the compromised made. For many years, the inflexible and unreasonable group unwilling to compromise has not been compelled to act on behalf of the workforce that helped build its legacy and earn them billions in profits.

A headline in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette this week read: Following labor strike, agreement between Wabtec, Erie workers could roll back wage system. Susan Schurman, a professor in the Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations, called the work that we did to avoid the two-tier wage system “a big deal”.

“This looks like they got most of what they probably wanted here. They didn’t get mandatory overtime; they got a commitment to adding employees, which I personally think we don’t see enough of in collective bargaining.”

In this latest round of negotiations, our brotherhood, our point of view, our value as a workforce was compelling enough to the leadership at Wabtec to bend on two-tier wages and commit to the Lawrence Park plant. Wabtec recognized the value of this workforce and that Keeping it Made in Erie is a good business model—no plant in the world builds better locomotives than in Erie—but it was our unbreakable commitment to each other and to justice that generated an environment that forced both sides to give.

Our work, together, here in Erie is making waves all over the nation. A ripple of hope to hundreds of thousands of American workers has been sent forth from Erie, Pennsylvania this week. It’s a heavy burden to continue to carry, but we will. Alone you can only do so much, but together we can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance.

The page is turning on this contract negotiation, but our work on behalf of workers across the world is just beginning. The late Robert Kennedy said it best when he delivered a speech at the University of Cape Town on June 6, 1966, during the height of apartheid.

“Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends forth a tiny ripple of hope, and crossing each other from a million different centers of energy and daring, those ripples build a current that can sweep down the mightiest walls of oppression and resistance.”

Together we fought for what we believed in a way that led others to join us, and we sent forth a tiny ripple of hope. Stand proud brothers and sisters. Work hard, and always remember you are a part of a legacy of justice and brotherhood that fights for the rights of all people. Who are we? UE.

The Officers, Executive Board, and members of UE 506 extend our deepest gratitude to the entire UE National, outside counsel, community and government officials for their constant support and expertise throughout negotiations.

Over the countless hours of negotiations, the following list represents the people who joined us on the frontline in the fight for the rights of workers everywhere:

76th UE National Convention

The 76th UE National Convention will take place Sunday, August 25th through Thursday, August 29th in Pittsburgh, PA. This year’s convention theme is “The Union for Everyone!” which reflects the changes from UE’s beginnings over 83 years ago, when the membership came solely from electrical, radio and machine industries. Today the membership is very diverse including rail crew drivers, school and college/university employees, co-op workers, hospital employees, service contract workers to name a few, in addition to manufacturing workers who have been the backbone of UE for so many years. We have learned that no matter what sector you hail members hail from UE’s long and vibrant history of aggressive struggle lives on.

Local 506 2019 Convention Delegates

The following members accepted and will serve as Local 506 Convention Delegates:

- Tom Skwaryk  Bldg. 12
- Don Brown      Bldg. 6
- James Hibbler  Bldg. 5
- Bryan Pietrzak Bldg. 18

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

STEP I

Step I  Steward or EE hands in grievance form to supervisor within 14 day of the issue. The company must provide a written answer within 7 days after the grievance is submitted to the EE, Department Steward, Divisional Chief Steward and Chief Plant Steward. An extension may be granted if mutually agreed upon.

STEP II

Step II  If a satisfactory resolve is not reached at Step I, the Steward or EE must check the box on the grievance form and submit to the supervisor within 14 days after the discussion at Step I. Step II meetings will be held each month with the Divisional Chief Steward, Chief Plant Steward and designated Labor Relations Representative. The parties shall discuss all grievances from that division that reached Step II in the preceding calendar month, unless an extension is mutually agreed upon. Within 7 calendar days from the Step II meeting the company will provide a written answer to the grievances heard at that meeting. The answer will be sent to the EE, Divisional Steward and Chief Plant Steward.

STEP III

Step III  If a satisfactory resolve is not reached at Step II, the Steward or EE must check the box on the grievance form and submit to the supervisor within 7 days after the answer is received. The parties shall discuss all grievances that reached Step II in the preceding calendar month, unless an extension is mutually agreed upon. A U.E. International Representative and other necessary Union designees may attend the Step III meeting. The company will provide a written answer to all grievances heard at that Step III meeting within 7 calendar days after the Step III meeting. When the Union appeals a grievance to Step III, and the Company provides its answer, the Grievance Procedure will be considered fully exhausted.

STEP IV

If the decision of the labor Relations Representative does not resolve the grievance, the Union may request that the grievance be submitted to final and binding arbitration, provided the arbitration demand is submitted to the Company within 60 calendar days after the receipt of the Step III answer. If the Step III grievance is not appealed to arbitration within 60 calendar days, the Step III answer will be considered final and binding on the employee, the Company and the Union.
